Local resident offers to build pump track

Beachlands resident Byron Scott has offered to fund the construction of a pump track similar to the one pictured above.

Coast for more than five years - and now he has taken the issue into his own hands, designing a track and offering materials to build it.

Franklin Local Board likes the idea, suggesting the new track could be sited at Constellation Park, located on Intrepid Crescent in Beachlands. The board voted at its December meeting to run a brief consultation period on the proposal.

Franklin Local Board Wairoa subdivision representative Malcolm Bell says Byron's offer is a generous one.

"The site search has a been a long one, [with] several locations ruled out for various reasons. When you get an offer like this, most people would expect us to grab it, but we still need to consult, especially with those around the park, just as we would with any new facility."

Fellow Wairoa representative Amanda Hopkins says consultation will be open to all and she's hoping young people will speak up in support of the pump track.

"It's very much a facility for them, but their voices are often missing when we consult," she says.

Board chair and Wairoa subdivision's third representative,

Byron Scott has advocated for a bike pump track on the Angela Fulljames, says the board will do what it can to help with funding.

"Consultation will be on Auckland Council's Have Your Say to supply about $100,000 worth of labour, machinery and page in February, and we have asked staff to report quickly so we can make a decision that suits all residents."

Byron is pleased to see progress made.

"We have been advocating for a pump track for around 5-6 years now. We originally tried at Omana Regional Park and then Maraetai Beach School, however both sites were turned down. The area severely lacks in facilities for our kids. The skate park is very basic and run down, and having 3 boys of my own it's a struggle to find somewhere to take them to build their bike skills year round," says Byron.

Byron owns and operates 440 Mountain Bike Park near Ōrere Point, and his company TrailPro builds asphalt pump tracks all over the country, including the one at Beachlands School.

"We see the huge benefits it has for these communities. Pump tracks are very inclusive and are not just great for bikes but

The Pohutukawa Coast Times is distributed weekly to 6500 homes and businesses in: Whitford, Brookby, Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Ardmore, Alfriston, Kawakawa Bay, Orere Point, Hunua and Paparimu Editorial by Mayor of Auckland Wayne Brown

As we all settle into 2025, I hope you have had a chance to rest and replenish with your family and friends over what has proven to be a genuine summer.

If you've been in Auckland over the holidays, you'll have noticed the vibe of the ASB Tennis Classic kicking off the sporting year, the buzz on the waterfront as we hosted the first SailGP event and Moana Auckland Festival, which has evolved into a six-week celebration of ocean-inspired events in only its second year.

Chinese New Year, Auckland Anniversary Weekend and Waitangi Day events have also provided opportunities to showcase our beautiful city and its lively communities.

These events have far reaching benefits. It's not just about the people who attend and the excitement they bring, it's also about the broader impact on our economy. From local businesses, accommodation providers and transport operators, to tourism. Events create jobs, stimulate growth and support our vibrant economy.

I'm sure these visitors, during their time here, will have taken in some of the amazing scenery, beaches, bays and coastal settlements including Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Ōrere Pt and the beautiful ranges that Hūnua offers, to name a few. I've also used the summer break to reflect on some of the achievements the council has delivered on for Aucklanders in the past year. These successes include:

• Setting up the Auckland Future Fund

 Getting the lowest rates rise of any metropolitan council in the country
 Achieving a good deal on water reform

Making the port earn more money

• Introducing a $50 weekly fare cap on public transport

• taking back control of transport planning, and;

• Getting the new waterfront swimming pool ready in time for summer

As Mayor of this great city, walking the talk is crucial. We've made progress but there is still more to be done.

I will have laser focus on building on the progress we've made and ensuring it continues to align to the policies I was elected to deliver; fixing Auckland's infrastructure, stopping the wasting of ratepayer money, progressing reforms that will see Aucklanders take back control of council organisations like Auckland Transport, Get Auckland Moving and making the most of our harbour and environment. With trains now running, including between Pukekohe and Papakura, and a bit of sting left in the summer tail, there is still much to enjoy around the city. There's the Lantern Festival and Pasifika, music and arts festivals and concerts, family day events, the museum and, locally, farmers markets, art exhibitions, gardens and the many swimming facilities and beaches across our fantastic city.

I'm looking forward to what the year brings and will continue to work hard to advocate for Aucklanders.

Groups invited to register interest for Community Wellness Day on 8 March

Clubs, groups and non-business entities of all shapes and sizes are invited to join a Pōhutukawa Coast Community Wellness Day to be held at Te Puru Community Centre on Saturday 8 March from 10am-2pm.

The event is a collaboration between the Takutai Charitable Trust, East Health, Beachlands Medical Centre and Te Puru Community Centre.

Takutai Trust board member Ruth Doone says the event aims to encourage people's physical and mental wellbeing by connecting them to their community. Locals are encouraged to come along and learn about all the fantastic opportunities the Pōhutukawa Coast has to thrive in.

"We invite all clubs, groups and organisations - anybody connected to or working within the community - to come along on the day and host a stand, and maybe hand out flyers, to let people know what they offer."

Ruth says there are many things available locally that people don't know about. For instance, locals who may be struggling with a situation that is causing them stress may be able to access free local guidance, in-person mental health support, health/ lifestyle coaching and social work input, while there are also a number of resources available via funded healthcare services which can assist people with other health challenges.

"Locally we have so many amazing clubs, groups and organisations which offer people a chance to meet others and have fun - whether that's through sport, games, the arts or support groups."

Ruth's healthcare background has made her aware of the importance of people being connected to their communities.

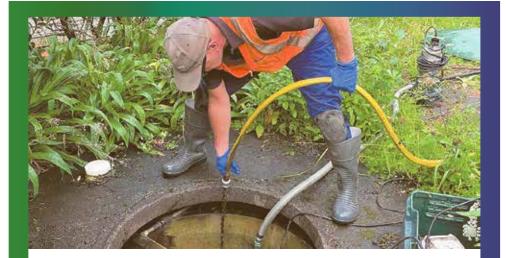

"There is a wealth of research which shows that being involved in your community can really help people's physical and mental health. We're just hoping to provide an event which will shine a light on the huge variety of things available in our area."

The Community Wellness Day will run in conjunction with Te Puru Community Centre's Open Day, designed to showcase the wide array of activities on offer at Te Puru.

Following the event, Ruth says the intent is to create a one-stop-shop online resource which contains details of all local clubs and community organisations.

Clubs and organisations are invited to register their interest in attending the Community Wellness Day event online at https://forms.gle/pisKHhZrmeuf5ywL8 or scan the QR code below.

also scooters, roller blades, roller skates and basically any wheeled activity."

Byron says he would have loved for council to fund a public pump track on the Coast.

"But it took this long just to secure the land! I really didn't want to wait many more years for the funding to become available."

Byron says the proposed location in Constellation Drive is perfect for the track - nice and flat and with a playground facility and seating already available.

"What's really great about it is there are exisiting cycle ways leading to the park which means people don't have to drive to use the facility," he says.

While Byron has generously donated his time and money into getting a scaled design done, and will also supply labour, machinery and some materials to build the track, he is hoping the community will get on board too.

He is looking for someone to sponsor site fencing, a portaloo, trucking of gap 40 material from local quarry, novacoil, drainage rock, grass seed, topsoil and native plants.

Anyone who would like to help can get in touch with Byron at 021 704 889 or byron@trailpro.nz.

Council throws shade at Kahawairahi park

Kahawairahi playground in Beachlands will be closed on 17-18 February while council contractors install much-needed seating areas and shade sails.

Auckland Council says it plans to install two picnic set pads, located off to the side of a new pathway connecting junior and senior play areas. Two additional park benches will be installed with concrete pads to the rear playground.

New shade sails will provide sun protection around the existing playground items, while two additional star shades will provide shade cover to those using the new picnic sets.

Franklin Local Board member Malcolm Bell says toilets for the park are at the planning stage.
