Signed, sealed, farewelled: community pays tribute to Sam's 15 years of service at Post Shop

Post Shop 'good guy' Sam Hickmott.

For 15 years, Sam Hickmott has been the welcoming face behind the counter at the Beachlands Post Shop.

But with the shop now under new ownership, Sam posted his final parcel last Friday.

He says that he is sad to leave, having kept the shop alive through what he calls "some pretty crazy times".

"You can't do something like this for 15 years without enjoying what you do. It's the people that make it. It's been an absolute pleasure looking after everybody for 15 years. It's a strange feeling to think about not being here, it's not quite sunk in yet."

Sam says he will also miss his co-worker Theresa, who has worked at the shop for two decades and is equally well known and liked.

"She's been great to work with, and she's done well to put up with me for so long," says Sam.

"It's one of those rare things, when you get a shot to do something like this for as long as I have, and deal with such amazing people."

The Pōhutukawa Coast Grapevine came alive with news of Sam and Theresa's departure, with Sam's post attracting

Editorial by Friends of Te Wairoa

We're free of spring, and now Summer too. The baby birds have fledged, the fruit has fallen from the trees and rotted away, and pests are hungry. So that means they're switching up their kai! They're searching in new places, and being enticed into traps and bait stations a bit more easily.

We are once again, as is typical for this time of year, hearing of more ferrets featuring in traps. Mostly in live traps, but also occasionally in DOC200s. The young kits are leaving the dens, with young females already pregnant. Yet, they are naïve to the environment around them and the dangers it presents, so are easier to entice into a trap with an easy feed of protein-based lure. If you have chickens, ducks, aviaries or pet rabbits that roam outside, make sure you have a trap of some sort for these killing machines, before they get going on your pets.

We are also hearing reports of a surge in rat numbers. Two rats, when left to breed uncontrollably, and counting their offspring's offspring, can easily become more than 1,000 in a year's time. So, every rat we catch helps to stop the plague.

On the contrary, possum catches appear to be slowing. Producing only 1-2 offspring per year, each possum you catch can lead to population suppression really quickly. Stay on guard though! Newcomers are always searching for a new patch to call home.

Part of restoring the mauri of the Wairoa River is about restoring biodiversity, increasing the abundance of native plants and animals. Reports from across the catchment indicate that kererū numbers are up - in some places they are beginning to flock again! It was once common to see flocks of 40 at a time, and we're slowly getting back to that point. Kākā are becoming increasingly common. Kōkako are venturing closer to the property boundaries of the Hūnua Ranges, as seen with one near the Hūnua Falls last year, while we know Long Tailed Bats are flying across farmland, and even a tomtit has been spotted on a Hūnua property.

If you want to continue to see these changes, and play your part in helping these species increase and flourish, consider doing some predator control on your property. We have upcoming drop-in events to help you understand what to do:

- Friday 28 March: Hunua Hall, 4-6pm
- Sunday 6 April: Whitford Community Hall, 10am-12pm
- Saturday 17 May: Ararimu Hall, 10am-12pm

"Sam! You are the definition of a bloody good sort! Perhaps you could go on to lecture the rest of the world in what amazing customer service is! We will all miss you soooo much!"

Another local, Wendy Wood, said: "Sam, my 86 year old dad before he passed away in May 2023 would drive from Pine Harbour twice a week to buy his lotto just so he could talk to you and Theresa. You both would make his day and I thank you for that."

Sam is not sure what he will do next. "I'll just let the dust settle and take a week or so to recalibrate."

Your community needs you! Community Response Team calls for volunteers

Since the weather events of January and February 2023, the Pōhutukawa Coast Community Response Team has been hard at work behind the scenes establishing its role within the community, developing plans, sourcing funding and securing assets - and now it is on the hunt for volunteers willing to join the team.

“When events impact our area, Community Response is reliant on members of the public, in part to reduce the reliance on first responder agencies and Auckland Emergency Management. This is as much about preparedness as it is about resilience and response,” says team member Yvonne Costar.

Yvonne says it has taken a long time for the team to complete the initial work required to set up a comprehensive emergency response organisation. “We wanted to get the structure correctly matched to our needs, and we are very proud of what we have accomplished to date, and very thankful for the support we have received from our communities in the form of resources, funding and time.”

Team leader Nick Cockerell says the team has now changed its name to Community Response Team (NZ), (CRT). “This was in part to simplify our name, but also because not all our communities in the Wairoa Region are a part of the Pōhutukawa Coast. This will allow each community to personalise their own team, and it enables us to expand past our current borders if needed,” says Nick.

The CRT hopes to create teams in each of the following communities: Whitford, Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Kawakawa Bay, Ōrere Point, Hūnua, Paparimu, Ararimu.

“We know that some of these communities have groups in place that have been looking at how to offer community resilience and response in times of need. We are simply offering a structured and co-ordinated response. In time, trained and well-equipped teams will exist across the larger Wairoa catchment of the Franklin area,” says Nick.

The team is now actively recruiting volunteers and team leaders for each of the communities above.

Get in touch if:

- you are 16 years or older and physically fit to help in an emergency
- you live in our community and want to give back at the grassroots level, boots on the ground
- you want to learn new skills that will help your community in times of need

Visit CRT.org.nz to register your interest.

What will you do?

Community response volunteers will learn how to:

- set up and run community resilience shelters (new name for emergency shelters)
- assist in preventing property damage (like sandbagging prior to king tides or forecast heavy rain)
- assist in low-level evacuations
- assess and survey the dangers and damage in emergencies
- communicate in emergencies
- provide first aid
- assist with road closures where needed
- offer support to all of our community members who need or want help, especially our most at risk
- lead teams, learn CIMS and other leadership skills

CRT will supply you with the clothing and training including NZQA qualifications.

Please note: Applications cannot be accepted from current-serving FENZ or volunteer firefighters, Police or Hone St John frontline staff as they are already committed to their response in times of emergency.

Sponsorship and Support:

There are other ways you can help!

You or your business may wish to support our community teams financially, by supporting a full kit for one member or simply by making a donation. CRT is a registered charity, so donations are tax-deductable.

Or maybe you are a whiz at funding applications or can offer resources.

If so, please look for the link on the CRT website that tells you how to best support.

CRT thanks Ray White Beachlands for their ongoing support.

“Setting up, equipping and training our teams is an expensive endeavour but at the end of the day it is for our communities. We are looking forward to getting out there in our communities and doing the mahi,” says Nick.

Rugby club plans memorial match and invites locals to fundraising dinner

This Saturday 15 March will be a special day for Beachlands Maraetai Rugby Club (BMRC) as it remembers “much-loved” player Cory Heather, who tragically passed away almost one year ago.

Junior Muster and Cory Heather Memorial Day Under 85 pre-season games

In addition to the club’s Junior Muster Day this Saturday, the club will mark Cory’s passing with the Cory Heather Memorial Day U85 Senior pre-season games.

The annual BMRC Junior Muster runs from 9-11am. All junior players will head down to Te Puru and meet their coach and fellow team mates for a fun-filled gala type atmosphere with food trucks, ice cream, coffee and more.

Club president James Gemmell says the club hopes the day will draw a large local crowd to support both the junior muster and the U85 teams who are playing in memory of Cory on the main rugby field. Confirmed teams playing so far include Patumahoe, Bombay, Waiheke and Beachlands Maraetai. There will be a presentation in the Te Puru function room afterwards for players, club members and direct family.

Cory Heather Memorial Fundraising Dinner

On Saturday 5 April Counties Manukau Rugby Football Union in conjunction with the New Zealand Rugby Foundation will hold a Cory Heather Memorial Fundraising Dinner.

The event, held at Navigation Homes Stadium, Pukekohe is to rally support and run an auction night to generate funds that will all go towards Cory’s family. The evening will feature a line up of guest speakers, including Sir Graeme Henry, All Black legend Sir Bryan Williams and Counties and All Black legend Andy Dalton. Auction items include unique signed memorabilia and bespoke “money can’t buy” experiences.

James Gemmell says the whole Pōhutukawa Coast community was affected by Cory’s passing in some way or another.

“This event is a great opportunity to allow the public to perhaps attend and in some way of their own, support Cory’s wider family.” Tickets are $200 per person, available from Andrew Phillips at Counties Manukau Rugby at andrew.phillips@steelers.co.nz

We are proud to be East Auckland's ONLY Crown Husqvarna dealer, with over 30 years of experience with lawn and garden equipment. We have two workshops with four mechanics to help with all your garden equipment maintenance, repairs and servicing plus sharpening of hedge cutters and any garden tools.

We also have in stock the CF Moto range of UTVs, side-by-sides and quad bikes which are exceptional quality at very affordable prices. We can also service concrete saws, plate compactors, water blasters, rotary hoes, woodsplitters, quad bikes, small tractors and ATVs – just give us a call if you have questions. On Tuesdays and Thursdays our truck is on the road to collect and drop off ride-ons for servicing.

New touch-free carwash technology comes to Botany

- by #1 Supreme Carwash

We are proud to yet again offer our customers the very latest in automated vehicle wash innovation.

Seven years ago we installed New Zealand's most advanced brush car wash machine - the Supremo Autowash. To follow up with this highly successful innovation we are now offering the very latest touch free car wash system fresh out of the USA.

The Razor Double Barrel is a game changer in touch free vehicle washing, and is the first of its type in this country.

So, what is new with the Razor Double Barrel? For a start this machine is on steroids compared with its predecessors with a wash time of 7 minutes for our top wash. The blue wash arch that tracks around your vehicle is guided by sensitive laser beams following the exact shape of your car offering more precise coverage with its two-step hot chemical application. The combination of chemistry and hot water far out-performs conventional high pressure car wash machines.

When it comes to the washing cycle, within the arch is a dedicated manifold that delivers water blasting at 1200 psi via 10 turbo nozzles and 5 overhead chisel nozzles. This is how the machine gets its name "Double Barrel".

After these cycles tri colour foam is added and then drying agent and a ceramic sealant agent are applied then followed by a spot free rinse. The final process is a double pass drying cycle via three mega powerful blowers.

1 Supreme Carwash offer the very best combination in automated car washing on Botany Downs main drag, Ti Rakau Drive. You don't have to go out of your way to experience this, just look for the roadside signs and take a left hand turn onto Amera Place.

In addition to our automated vehicle wash offers, we still offer our immaculate seven self-service bays and seven self-service vacuum stations offering mega powerful suction.

Over the last 24 years we have earned the honour of being one of Botany's "stood the test of time" convenience business.

If you are not one of the hundreds of regular callers at #1 Supreme Carwash, discover car washing made easy by calling in.

Kerb and channeling work on the way for Beachlands

Franklin Local Board has voted to spend $783,000 on kerb and channelling work in Beachlands. The funding came after Local Board Transport Capital funding was reinstated within Auckland Council's Long Term Plan, giving local boards greater decision-making power over where transport funding is spent within their areas.

The board will spend the funding, plus any remaining unallocated budget for the term, on delivering kerb and channeling work in First View Ave (including footpath), Karaka Road (by the Beachlands Domain) and on a section of Second View Ave.

At this stage no timeframe has been set for the works, but Franklin Local Board member Malcolm Bell says he hopes the work will be done before the end of the year.

Police release name of person who died in Ōrere incident

Police have released the name of the man who died at Ōrere Point on 2 March. He was Faasala Samu Matue, aged 45.

A blessing was conducted at the scene with family and iwi present last Thursday morning.

Counties Manukau District Commander Superintendent Shanan Gray says Police extend their condolences to the man's family at this difficult time. A post-mortem was completed last Wednesday, however Mr Matue's cause of death has not been determined as yet. Police will await further findings from a pathologist.

Meanwhile, the critical incident investigation remains ongoing into the wider events that unfolded on Sunday 2 March.

Police are continuing to ask any witnesses with information or footage to come forward. Please make contact with Police online or by calling 105.

Board asks AT to speed up work on Pine Harbour bus connection

Franklin Local Board has asked Auckland Transport to speed up progress in establishing a Pine Harbour bus stop.

At its February meeting, the board requested that the AT General Manager Strategy and Planning and Public Transport Service Change Planning Manager expedite acquiring a bus stop near Pine Harbour Marina without further delay.

The board noted that Auckland Council owns "a significant parcel of land adjacent to the marina that could be used to accommodate fit for purpose public access to ferry services, encourage uptake of public transport by commuters, and reduce pressure on the South-Eastern roading network".

The parcel of land referred to by the board is the parking area near the public boat ramp at the far end of the marina-owned carpark.

Business Profile - Kitchencraft

"Straightforward" is a word not typically associated with kitchen installations, but that is how Jenny Gulliver (from Beachlands) describes the process of installing her new Kitchencraft kitchen.

Kitchencraft is owned by Darrin McFarlane and Beachlands local Warren Smith, capably supported by a team of professionals.

Jenny's new kitchen was installed as part of a larger home renovation.

"We weren't experienced in any type of renovation," says Jenny, "so having someone with all the trades contacts made it so easy. We felt really comfortable being able to leave it all in Warren's hands."

Kitchencraft were able to help with the entire process by managing all trades-folk on site, and even going the extra mile to sell the family's old kitchen on TradeMe - and being there on a Sunday when the old kitchen was collected!

It is the second time Jenny has used Kitchencraft's services, and she is once again delighted with the results. Clever use of space has provided the family with a "hidden scullery", bifold lift-up cabinets above the hob, and even a concealed cupboard behind the fridge space to store glassware.

The quality and design are two key things that stand out to Jenny, and she is a big fan of her new kitchen drawers which have replaced the previous cupboards.

"It's so much easier to use, and it feels really functional," she says.

Kitchencraft build clients' kitchens in their east Auckland factory, allowing their clients to visit and get an idea of scale and to ensure they are happy with the finished product.

Timely and regular communication with a 'daily schedule' streamlines the process.

Their team are always on the same page, and nothing is ever a problem, says Jenny.

Kitchencraft offer bespoke cabinetry for new builds and renovations, including kitchens, vanities, laundry, entertainment units and wardrobes. With over 35 years in the industry, they take pride in top quality products backed by top tier service.

Student Voice

LOCAL STUDENTS' NEWS, VIEWS & LITERARY TALENT

This column features news, views and literary talents of students from Beachlands, Maraetai, Clevedon, Brookby, Hunua, Paparimu, Orere and Ardmore Schools.

One student featured each week will be presented with a certificate and a $20 book voucher, thanks to Barfoot & Thompson's Beachlands and Whitford branches.

This week's voucher sponsored by Stuart Fitzpatrick

Camp Scare

Huddled around a sparking fire, flames rise into the cold, dark night. And a girl was telling a story.

Back in the 1990s a ten year old girl with brown hair and blue eyes was visiting this exact camp with her school. Back then people believed that this is an old cemetery and that ghosts still haunt the camp today.

As the girl entered her cabin, SLAM! The door slammed shut and locks, locking her in. Trembling she scampers across the cold floor as it creaks underneath her bare feet, her toes go cold as she walks, hairs stand up on her arms in fear. She sits on her so-called bed as it smashes to the floor, dust mites fly into the air.

As she is about to fall asleep she hears a deep voice moving closer to her bed, feet creeping along the floor as a white figure drifts towards her. It was right in front of her face and then disappeared.

They were travelling along the rocky gravel road on their bus on the way back home. The boys were yelling at each other, their teacher blocked her ears with temper, all the girls were chatting except for one, she was silent in the corner of the bus. The sun shines through the window as the girl glances in the reflection through the window as she looks and stares at someone else.

- by Sammy Mitchell, Year 7, Beachlands School

CATCH OF THE WEEK PHOTO COMPETITION

Send us your fishing photos this summer and be in to win a $50 Top Catch voucher from GAS Maraetai each week!

The overall season winner will win a brand new rod and reel sponsored by GAS Maraetai.

Gurvinder Singh went fishing recently, travelling from Maraetai to Waiheke, where he caught this kingfish. The fish was undersized, so was returned to the sea, but just catching the fish was enough to make Gurvinder's day!

TO ENTER, EMAIL YOUR PHOTO TO LIZ@GASMARAEATAI.CO.NZ

include your full name, plus details about your catch (where the fish was caught, boat name, special gear used, what you did with the fish after it was caught etc).
